

Green deserves praise

Councillor Gary Green is a trustworthy, conscientious and highly regarded member of our local community who instills integrity and some brilliance into Rockdale Council.

In dealing with Cr Green, and knowing others who have, he always listens and acts speedily and effectively without fear or favour.

It's worth remembering that to avoid criticism a councillor simply has to do nothing, say nothing and be nothing.

Surely, these are not qualities we need in our councillors.

That's why I'm disappointed by unfounded criticism of Cr Green by negative serial letter writers and opposing councillors.

Councillors such as Green deserve encouragement, not frivolous criticism.

M Stevens
Brighton-Le-Sands