

ON THE EDGE

The country needs you

DISCUSSION at Rockdale Council's meeting on November 2 was particularly lively. Cr Gary Green felt that some councillors were enjoying the "talkfest" too much, so much so, "they should go and join the UN". He also told those objecting to developments going ahead in the city that they should go and live in the country because, after all, "that's progress".