

Sweets in the chamber

COUNCILLOR Gary Green made himself a few friends before the Rockdale Council meeting on March 7 when he handed out boiled sweets to councillors, council officers, people in the public gallery and a Leader journalist. Cr Green's generosity did undermine the reverence of the opening prayer a few minutes later when many of the lips around the chamber were seen moving – and not necessarily in prayer.