

Who else tied the knot?

JouJou Jabbour and Gary Green Doltone House, Sylvania Waters

The first thing Gary noticed about JouJou at a Christmas party was her elongated piano fingers. "I said to her, 'You have beautiful marrying fingers.' What a pick-up line – it's a wonder I'm not still single with pearlers like that one," Gary says. Luckily for him, JouJou didn't let the corny line deter her from getting to know Gary. A year-and-a-half later the couple wed, followed by a honeymoon in the US.
